

And when he had said this,
he breathed on them and said to them,
"Receive the holy Spirit".

Garden for the Food Pantry

The St. Vincent de Paul Conference from Christ the King Parish is doing a garden again this year for the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry. The garden is located just outside of McFarland. We are looking for able bodied youth (and young at heart - regardless of age) to assist us in the planting, weeding and harvesting of this garden. Unfortunately, we are unable to provide dates and times for these projects to be completed because of weather conditions, growing conditions, etc. The commitment could be for a single time or ongoing throughout the growing/harvest season. So, if you are flexible with your time and want to help in this activity, please join us. Youth - this would look great on your community service cards. For more information, call Lynne at 221-4520 or e-mail ltoseff@madison.k12.wi.us.

Food Pantry Donations

Food donations for the St. Vincent de Paul Pantry will be held on May 22/23 and 29/30. Be sure to check expiration dates of food items you are donating. Your contributions to the food pantry are appreciated as you help our neighbors in need.

Help Hunger Take a Vacation

Some are surprised to learn that summer is just about the busiest time for St. Vincent de Paul's Madison food pantry. The numbers of local people who need to rely on Dane County's largest pantry for help in feeding their families typically peak during summer, when many children lack access to school meal programs. This means that volunteer hosts, stockers and receptionists are needed now, especially for the pantry's shifts on Thursdays from 3:00 to 7:00 P.M., Fridays from 11:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M., and Saturdays from 10:00 A.M. to noon. Service at the pantry is a great opportunity for families and groups of friends who would like to volunteer together - and it's an important means of putting faith in action. Please consider attending a one-hour information session at 2:00 P.M. on Thursday, June 3, at the pantry, 2033 Fish Hatchery Road. To reserve your spot for the session, call Volunteer Coordinator Margie Welsh at 442-7200, ext. 443.

Thank You Fr. Steve!

All members of the parish are invited to thank Fr. Steve for his ministry as we come to the end of the Year for Priests. Please join us in the parish hall on Sunday, June 13 following the 10:00 Mass. We will honor Fr. Steve's years of service with a special gift, cake and punch, fellowship, prayer and fun.

Annual Catholic Appeal 2010

In the near future, parishioners who haven't had an opportunity to give to the 2010 Annual Catholic Appeal will receive a follow-up letter. The appeal goal is in sight and with your help it can be reached. Once the goal is met, additional funds received for the appeal will be made available for items such as grants for schools, religious education in parishes, support for Camp Gray, and additional funds for Catholic Charities. Over 17,000 households throughout the diocese have already made a gift. Prayerfully consider making a heartfelt gift to help diocesan ministries and, hopefully, begin to fund needs in our own parishes. For a complete list of what the 2010 Annual Catholic Appeals funds, go to www.madisondiocese.org and click on the ACA logo on the home page.

Pastoral Council Elections

Congratulations to Rick Hoffman and Mary Neuenchwander who were elected to the parish pastoral council and to Dave Ebert who was re-elected as parish trustee-treasurer. The results of this year's election to the parish pastoral council were most likely the closest ever. There was only a two vote difference between second and third places. And the fourth-place finisher was only twelve votes behind the first-place finisher.

We want to thank Kathleen Blair and Don Tofte, who have completed their three-year commitment on the pastoral council.

Know Our Volunteers Susan Papendieck

Susan is a member of the pastoral council and of the linkage committee. The latter group of ten members - five each from Christ the King and St. Patrick in Cottage Grove - is working towards linkage that begins in about one year.

Susan chaired the games committee for two parish festivals and has been part of Generations of Faith. She has been a substitute religious education teacher and the Wednesday office worker making telephone calls.

THE PASTOR'S BLOG

Should Solicitor General Elena Kagan become the newest justice on the U.S. Supreme Court, she will be the third Jewish member and she also will join six Catholics. Can you believe that the highest court in our land will be six Catholics and three Jews?

Only thirteen Catholics have ever been on this court since the court was established in 1789. Kagan will only be the eighth Jew in the history of the court. No Jew has ever been the chief justice. Chief Justice Roberts is only the third Catholic chief justice. Chief Justices Taney and White preceded him in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries.

I am not sure how to interpret this. Are Jews and Catholics better judges than Protestants? Or are there fewer Protestants? Or is it simply a matter of chance?

I have been upset by the level of discussion throughout our nation. Like the Supreme Court, political and social discourse should be civil and always respectful – although not necessarily in agreement – with another position.

I am disturbed by the use of ridicule in public discussion. The tendency seems to be that you don't argue against someone's position, rather you ridicule him. This seems to taint reason and certainly civility in discussion.

Saul Alinsky in "Rule for Radicals" (Vintage, 1971) wrote rule #5: "Ridicule is man's most potent weapon. It is impossible to counterattack ridicule. Also it infuriates the opposition, who then react to your advantage." In this view, the truth, or at least the pursuit of the truth, is unimportant. Power is important and one uses any means to bring about one's goals.

We see this in many matters throughout both sides of the political spectrum. Let me use the example of people who are pro-life. They are ridiculed as "woman haters" or "people that want to take us back to the dark ages." If someone wants to support abortion, let them do this by stating a positive position and not ridiculing those who have a reverence for life in all its forms.

Faith Sharing on Next Sunday's Gospel

May 30, 2010 - Trinity Sunday

Take 10 minutes to share your faith with your family or friends, at the beginning of Parish Committee meetings, etc. For an opening and closing prayer, go to www.myparish.com.

Proclaim the Gospel:

John 16:12-15 (Jesus' Departure)
(Other readings: Proverbs 8:22-31; Romans 5:1-5))

Invitation to Share:

God calls us to solidarity with Jesus. In this solidarity we are able to hear the cries of the poor, be agents of reconciliation, and bring hope to the hopeless. How can I be God's presence to those in need? What will I do?

(adapted from PrayerTime, Cycle C)

If you would like to learn more about faith sharing opportunities or resources, contact Julie Allington at 838-8324.

➤ Mallards Baseball Game

All middle and high school teens are invited to attend a social outing on Wednesday, June 16. We will gather at the CTK parking lot at 5:30 P.M. in order to carpool to Warner Park to tailgate and enjoy the game against the Battle Creek Bombers. The cost is $10.00 and includes the ticket and food. Participants are asked to bring their favorite picnic food to share. Brats, hamburgers and beverages will be provided. Please return money and the permission slip (found on the youth bulletin board) to Sarabeth by June 9.

➤ Attention High School Seniors

Blessing for the Graduates: All high school seniors are encouraged to attend the 10:00 A.M. Mass on Sunday, June 6, when a special blessing for graduates will be given. A reception will follow in the parish hall.

Baccalaureate 2010: On Sunday, June 6, a Baccalaureate Service will be held at 7:00 P.M. at the McFarland Lutheran Church. This is a faith-based blessing and a celebration of graduation. All high school graduates and their families are invited to attend this special celebration. This service is sponsored by the McFarland area churches and the Ecumenical Committee.

➤ Love Begins Here Service Week

Youth in middle and high school have an opportunity this summer to serve others, love God and know themselves. Without having to travel across the country, we are going to see what work needs to be done in our own backyards. Faithful to the teachings and practices of the Catholic Church, this program will work to develop young leaders into the saints they are called to be.

Service weeks for high school students are June 20-25, June 27-July 2 and July 11-16. Middle school students can participate the week of July 6-9. The cost for the trip is $100 for high school and $80 for middle school. This includes lodging and food. Permission slips are available at the parish office. The deadline to sign up for a service week is June 1. Contact Sarabeth to sign up or if you have any questions.

Generations of Faith Core Committee

The Generations of Faith Core Committee will meet on Wednesday, May 26, at 6:30 P.M. in the St. Ann room. All past GOF core team members and anyone who is interested in being a part of a group of dedicated individuals who oversees the Christ the King religious education program are invited to attend our last planning meeting of the year. The agenda will include looking at the 2010-2011 theme of discipleship, promotion of GOF and a preliminary look at speakers and ideas for the program. If you have any questions, please contact Julie or Sarabeth at the parish office (838-9797). We look forward to seeing you!

RE Books in the Parish Hall

Religious education books were sent home with the children at their last class for grades Pre-K to 5. If your children were absent or forgot to bring home their books, you may pick them up in the parish hall until June 1. After that date, books will be recycled.

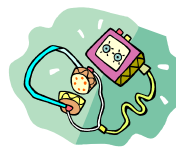

Garage Sale

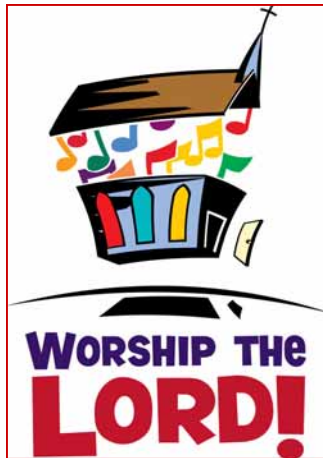

Now that spring is upon us, do you have the urge to clean all those closets and rearrange your furniture? If so, please keep the St. Vincent de Paul Garage Sale in mind. The sale will take place the same weekend as the Community Garage Sale (June 19) and all donations would be appreciated. The profits will remain in McFarland and be used by the local St. Vincent de Paul Conference to assist our neighbors in need. We will begin collecting items two weeks before the sale. If you have any questions, contact Vince or Karen Wagner at 838-7123.

Looking for Toys

King Fest kids games are in need of your toy donations. Keep us in mind as you clean out toy boxes and closets in the coming weeks. Items may be used but need to be in good shape. There are marked bins in the parish hall for these donations. We are looking for stuffed animals, jewelry, usable electronics, puzzles, etc. Keep in mind we need items for kids ages 1-13.

New Roman Missal (Sacramentary)

On June 23, 2008, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops received recognitio from the Holy See for the newly translated Order of the Mass. This is the first of numerous texts which will form the new Roman Missal, which is set for completion sometime in 2010. The text of the Order of Mass and other catechetical materials are available on our diocesan website www.madisondiocese.org.

While the texts have received the recognitio of the Holy See, they are not approved for liturgical use in the United States and should not be used in the celebration of the Mass at this time.

There will be many things written on the Internet, in blogs, and in popular journals regarding the forthcoming Third Edition of the Roman Missal. The U.S. Bishops Committee on Divine Worship has requested that we remind people of our Diocese that their website will contain authoritative material that has been reviewed by the Bishop members of the Committee. Material on other websites and news outlets may or may not be authoritative or correct.

Ten Questions on the Revised Translation of the Ordo Missae From the Missale Romanum, editio typical tertia

1. Why the changes?

The Missale Romanum (Roman Missal), the ritual text for the celebration of the Mass, was promulgated by Pope Paul VI in 1970 as the definitive text of the reformed liturgy of the Second Vatican Council. That Latin text, the editio typica (typical edition), was translated into various languages for use around the world; the English edition was published in the United States in 1973. The Holy See issued a revised text, the editio typica altera, in 1975.

Pope John Paul II promulgated the third edition of the Missale Romanum (editio typica tertia) as part of the Jubilee Year in 2000. Among other things, the third edition contains prayers for the celebration of recently canonized saints, additional prefaces for the Eucharistic Prayers, additional Masses and Prayers for Various Needs and Intentions, and some updated and revised rubrics (instructions) for the celebration of the Mass. To aid the process of translation of the Missale Romanum, editio tertia, the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments issued Liturgiam Authenticam, the Fifth Instruction on Vernacular Translation of the Roman Liturgy, in 2001, which outlines the principles and rules for translation. In 2007, the Congregation for Divine Worship issued the Ratio Translationis for the English Language, which outlined the specific rules for translation in English.

2. Who is doing the work of translation?

The process of translation is a highly consultative work of several groups. The International Commission on English in the Liturgy (ICEL) is chartered to prepare English translations of liturgical texts on behalf of the conferences of bishops of English-speaking countries. Currently 11 conferences of bishops are full members of the Commission: the United States, Australia, Canada, England and Wales, India, Ireland, New Zealand, Pakistan, the Philippines, Scotland and South Africa.

The USCCB and the other member Conferences of Bishops receive draft translations of each text from ICEL and have the opportunity to offer comments and suggestions to ICEL. A second draft is proposed, which each Conference of Bishops approves (a Conference of Bishops reserves the right to amend or modify a particular text) and submits to the Vatican for final approval.

At the level of the Vatican (the Holy See), the Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments examines texts and offers authoritative approval (recognitio) of texts and grants permission of their use. Currently the Congregation is aided by the recommendations of Vox Clara, a special commission of bishops and consultants from English-speaking countries convened to assist with the English translation of the Missale Romanum.

3. What's new or particularly different from the revised translations?

From the Ratio Translationis:

The unique style of the Roman Rite should be maintained in translation. By “style” is meant here the distinctive way in which the prayers of the Roman Rite are expressed. The principal elements of such a style include a certain conciseness in addressing, praising and entreating God, as well as distinctive syntactical patterns, a noble tone, a variety of less complex rhetorical devices, concreteness of images, repetition, parallelism and rhythm as measured through the cursus, or ancient standards for stressing syllables of Latin words in prose or poetry. (no. 112)

The texts of the revised translation of the Roman Missal are marked by a heightened style of English speech and a grammatical structure that is based on the Latin text. In addition, many biblical and poetic images, such as “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter my roof ...” (Communion Rite) and “... from the rising of the sun to its setting” (Eucharistic Prayer III) have been restored.
